

Diletta

Engineered with performance, reliability, and usability in mind, Diletta is a collaboration between Seattle Coffee Gear and a veteran team of Italian designers. We built Diletta to offer a home espresso experience that's accessible to new users and enthusiasts alike, all for a competitive price. Whether you're looking for classic Italian design or something more modern, the first two releases under the Diletta brand have you covered. Diletta espresso machines also let you brew with confidence due to their solid construction and reliability. We hope you'll love these world class espresso machines as much as we do!
