MOROCCAN CARROT SALAD

Yield: 4 servings

Preserved lemons are widely used in Moroccan cooking and essential if your dishes are to taste authentic, unfortunately, they cannot be replaced with ordinary lemons or limes. Moroccan preserved lemons are pickled in brine and have a salty, exotic taste. The peel loses its bitterness and adds a very distinctive flavor to a wide variety of dishes. You should only use the peel, it contains the lemon's essential oils and flavor, discard the flesh as it is too salty.

1 pound carrots, peeled and grated
1/4 cup cilantro, finely chopped
1/4 cup flat-leaf parsley, finely chopped
1/2 cup mint, finely chopped
1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1 teaspoon sweet paprika
1 teaspoon cumin seeds, toasted and ground
1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
1/4 cup fresh lemon juice
1 tablespoon lemon zest
3 cloves garlic, minced
1 tablespoon honey
1 preserved lemon (peel finely diced, flesh discarded)
1 tablespoon harissa
Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste

1. To prepare salad: To a large bowl add all ingredients and mix to combine. Taste and adjust seasoning with salt and pepper. Serve chilled or at room temperature.

QUINOA TABBOULEH SALAD

Yield: 4 servings

Quinoa is the world's most beloved superfood. Quinoa is a complete protein containing all nine essential amino acids. Quinoa bought in the bulk section can have a bitter residue on it, so make sure to rinse it well in a fine-mesh strainer.

2 cups water
1 cup quinoa, well rinsed
1-pint cherry tomatoes, halved
1/2 cup mint, finely chopped
1 cup flat-leaf parsley, finely chopped
1/4 cup green onions, finely chopped
1/2 cup raisins
1 cup English cucumber, medium diced
1/2 cup fresh lemon juice
1 tablespoon lemon zest
1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
2 cloves of garlic, finely minced
Kosher salt and fresh ground black pepper

1. To prepare quinoa: To a medium saucepan set over medium-high heat, add water and quinoa and bring to a boil. Cover, reduce heat to low, simmer 20 minutes or until liquid is absorbed. Remove from heat, fluff with a fork, and transfer to a mixing bowl.

2. To assemble salad: To a medium mixing bowl add the cooked quinoa, tomatoes, herbs, onion, raisins, and cucumber. To a small bowl, add lemon juice, zest, olive oil, and garlic, whisk to combine. Add lemon dressing to quinoa salad, stir to combine. Taste and adjust seasoning with salt and pepper. Cover, and let stand 1 hour at room temperature.

CITRUS IN ROSE-SCENTED SYRUP WITH YOGURT AND PISTACHIOS

Yield: 4 servings

Oranges and rose water are a traditional combination in Morocco. Rosewater is used in a variety of Greek pastries and Middle Eastern dishes. Use with a light hand as the flavor can overwhelm the dish, a little can add just a hint of something exotic.

1 1/2 cups water

1 cup granulated sugar

2 cinnamon sticks, broken in half

1/4 teaspoon rose water

1 pound assorted fresh citrus (pink grapefruit, blood oranges, oranges)

1 cup whole milk plain Greek yogurt

1/2 cup pistachios, toasted and chopped

1. To make syrup: To a heavy bottom saucepan, set over medium heat, add the water and sugar, stir until dissolved. Increase heat to medium-high, add cinnamon, and boil until syrup is reduced to 1 cup, about 10 minutes. Add rose water, whisk to combine, allow to cool.

2. To prepare citrus: Using a paring knife cut off peel and white pith from the citrus. Working over large bowl, cut between membranes to release segments into bowl.

3. To assemble: To a platter spread the Greek yogurt. Top with citrus and drizzle with a generous amount of syrup. Garnish with pistachios.
