Roasted Steak with Chimichurri Sauce

1. 30 minutes before class, preheat the oven to 400°F. Remove the steaks from the refrigerator and allow to come them to room temperature.
2. Wash and dry all the produce.

Sautéed Corn with Smoky Lime Butter

1. Wash and dry all the produce.
2. Thaw and drain the frozen corn. Pat the corn dry with paper towels.

ROASTED STEAK WITH CHIMICHURRI SAUCE

Yield: 4 servings

Steak:

*2, 12-ounce sirloin steaks or NY strip steaks
Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
Vegetable oil*

Chimichurri sauce:

*1 cup packed fresh flat-leaf parsley leaves
1/2 cup packed fresh cilantro leaves
1/2 cup extra-virgin olive oil
1 tablespoon shallot, coarsely chopped
2 garlic cloves, chopped
1/2 teaspoon ground cumin
1 tablespoon fresh oregano leaves
1/2 teaspoon red pepper flakes
2 tablespoons red wine vinegar
Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper*

1. Preheat the oven to 400°F and position a rack in the middle of the oven. Remove the steaks from the refrigerator and pat dry with paper towels. Rub both sides of the steak with oil, season with salt and pepper. Let the steak stand at room temperature for 30 minutes.

2. To cook the steak: To a heavy-bottomed skillet set over medium-high, heat until hot. Add the steaks and sear, about 2 minutes per side. Transfer the pan to the oven and cook to desired doneness, about 6 to 8 minutes for medium-rare (or 125°F on an instant-read thermometer when inserted into the thickest part of the steak). Transfer the steaks to a cutting board and tent loosely with foil.

3. To prepare the chimichurri sauce: To the bowl of a food processor, combine all the ingredients. Pulse until the herbs are finely chopped, stopping to scrape down the sides of the bowl as needed. Transfer the chimichurri to a medium bowl. Taste and adjust seasoning with salt and pepper.

4. To serve: Slice the steaks crosswise into 1/2-inch slices; serve with chimichurri sauce.

Recipe Variations:

- Most cuts of steak will work well for this recipe. The cooking technique will be the same, the suggested cook times might vary based on the thickness of the steak.

SAUTÉED CORN WITH SMOKY LIME BUTTER

Yield: 4 servings

1 tablespoon vegetable oil
1-2 poblano peppers, diced
1 shallot, diced
1 garlic clove, chopped
1 pound frozen corn, thawed and drained
1 lime, zested, and cut in half
1/2 teaspoon smoked paprika
3 tablespoons unsalted butter, cut into pats
2 tablespoons cilantro, chopped
Kosher salt
Freshly ground black pepper

1. To a large skillet set over medium heat, add the vegetable oil and swirl the pan to coat the bottom. Add the peppers, shallots, and garlic, stir often and sauté until tender.
2. Increase the heat to high and add the corn. Cook the mixture, tossing every 30 seconds until the corn begins to brown.
3. Lower the heat to medium-high and add the zest, smoked paprika, and butter, stir to combine. Cook, stirring often until butter melts and the zest and paprika are fragrant. Remove the skillet from the heat and squeeze in the juice from half of the lime. Add the cilantro and adjust the seasoning with salt, pepper, and lime juice.

Recipe variations:

- Substitutions for poblano peppers: Anaheim or a mix of one bell pepper and one jalapeño pepper will work.
- Substitutions for shallot: Red, white, sweet, or yellow onions as well as the white and light green portions of a green onion.

PAN-FRIED BANANAS WITH DULCE DE LECHE

Yield: 4 servings

This simple recipe is the base for bananas foster. Serve with vanilla ice cream and a shot of rum for a bananas foster-inspired sundae.

4 tablespoons (1/2 stick) unsalted butter
1/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1/8 teaspoon ground cinnamon
4 ripe and firm bananas cut in half, crosswise and halved lengthwise
1/2 cup store-bought dulce de leche
Flaky sea salt

1. To a small saucepan over medium heat, add the dulce de leche. Heat until just simmering. Take off the heat and keep warm.
2. To a medium skillet add the butter, brown sugar, and cinnamon. Place over low heat and cook, stirring constantly until the sugar dissolves.
3. Add the bananas cut side down and cook, spooning the butter mixture over the bananas until they soften and begin to brown. Flip the bananas and remove the skillet from heat.
4. To serve: Spoon the bananas out of the pan and divide between four bowls. Spoon the pan sauce over the bananas. Top the bananas with the warm dulce de leche and garnish with flaky salt.

Recipe variations:

- Peeled, cored and sliced pears or apples will also work well with this recipe.
